

DESIGN YOUR OWN PERSONAL WEDDING RINGS

Here is an overview of the various possibilities which you typically must decide on if you are considering having custom made wedding rings created. Print out this sheet and fill it in together - a great way to start the conversation about the design of your bespoke wedding rings.

Wedding rings can look many other ways than suggested here. However, this sheet is a really good starting point and is also a great help when subsequently meeting in the shop or online, where the 3 of us will draw up the final design making everyone happy.
